From Sep 2012 until May 2013, I had the very special pleasure to stay in this beautiful apartment of Alexis and his girlfriend! After several drawbacks from other apartment visits (I stopped counting..), I really felt that THIS is where I wanted to stay during my time in Barcelona. The flat is very light, clean, beautifully furnished and is equiped with everything you need - no matter if you plan a short or long-term stay. The neighbourhood is very central and safe (might be important especially for young women like me) and the flat owners are SUPER nice :) Very easygoing, helpful and fun. By the way, if you want to enjoy the best Mojito in your life, this is THE place to be...

I spent nearly a year leaving at this house in Alicante when I was studying at uni. I was quite lucky to find this place. The location is perfect as you are really close to the centre (just 5 minutes walking). Food shops, chemist, restaurants, and banks are all in the same (website hidden)'s also well connected as there are 24 hours buses, one of them takes you to Uni. Leaving in the house was really good. All the premises were renewed. I payed for the biggest bedroom which had a TV (as the rest of my flatmates) a really comfortable double bed (with a new mattress!!)big wardrobe, desk, shelves more than enough to store all my stuff. It was a great experience also because of the people I had to share the house with, it was easy to keep the house tidy and clean. There was also a cleaning lady coming for cleaning the common areas and that was the greatest point I would say :) I looked for a flat quite for a while and didn't find a better quality for the value. Highly recommended!

I lived for 10 months in Barcelona with Alexis and Amanda. I had the time of my life and I felt immediately comfortable! This flat is higly recommended: a lot of light, very clean, nice and safe neighborhood (very central), lovely people (and many more)! I can't forget this year and great memories will last forever; I had a place where I loved spending my time in. Thank you so much! You're always welcome, whenever you want!

I lived for three years in the Barcelona apartment in Calle Corsega and my long stay there explains a lot..wonderful apartment, wonderful people, and a place I can call Home. the flat is perfectly located in a great central area, safe and quiet: it's completely renewed, very clean, and full of light..I am already missing my breakfasts there enjoying the sun in the kitchen! :) the atmosphere was exactly what I needed..relaxing, funny, easy-going, and very very respectful. I left with great memories of the flat and 2 really good friends inside :) Higly Recommended!!

I've lived for six months in Barcelona's apartment. This apartment is as described in the advert: full of light, clean, well-equipped and designed. The location is perfect: close to paseo de Gracia, to Avenida Diagonale, to the city center... You can find whatever you want/need in the neighbourhood. The price is really affordable, compared to other places in Barcelona. It's perfect for people who want to live in a quiet and safety place, but not very far from everything. People who live in the apartment are quiet, respectful, pleasant and keen on helping you having a good stay.

I'm living right now in Alexis' house in Alicante and I must admit that it's very comfortable. It has everything, each room has a tv, there is one extra tv also in the living room. in the kitchen we have a microwave and the washing machine is very modern so you are sure it won't destroy your clothes :) internet is fast and works without a problem the bus stop to the university is just around the corner and in front of the house we have a supermarket, there are banks, a 24/7 store, and it's close to the city centre around 15 mins walking. first i thought that i would try this place just for half a year but after having been here i know that i will stay for the whole master which lasts 2 years. what's more Alexis is a great guy, very helpful, once we had a problem we wrote to him and the next day the problem was solved. I want to recommend this place to everyone :) Ania

I stayed for a while in the Alicante apartment and it was fantastic, there was an amazing atmosphere, above all during summer because it's full of light! Plus, it's rounded by every kind of shop so I always found everything I needed with no effort. I recommend it also because Alexis is a great guy, everytime there was even the tiniest problem we solved it in a couple days :D

I've rented a room from Alexis for one year. Upon our initial contact, he was always pleasant, helpful and directly answered any question I had. Living here, I count my blessings to live in a flat that is modern, light-filled and centrally-located. Alexis strives to create an ambience of mutual respect in the house and expects you do the same. And oh yea, he's super nice to boot! I give my official stamp of approval :)
